How
McDONALD'S with the
DINER INSIDE
CAME TO BE.

BIG Mac®

It was 1955, and life was simpler. No cell phones. And just two great places to eat (besides your mom's.) McDonald's, that new burger place, for dining on the go, and your local Diner, when taking it slow. It was classic American comfort food. Except they didn't call it that back then. It was just food.

Today, life is much busier. You have to work, live and eat at your pace. So we created this place. McDonald's with the Diner Inside. Two American classics, one great location. The relaxing Diner experience when you're kicking back. The McDonald's you count on when you're on the fast track. Now you can have it all. Unless, of course, you're at mom's.
